November, 2016

We are thankful for our GOAL donors!

Thank you for your energy, commitment and passion for providing greater opportunities for access to learning for Georgia students through the GOAL program. We wish you a very Happy Thanksgiving!

If you have not yet “gobbled up” your share of GOAL tax credits for 2017, apply online today.

Your participation makes an impact.

“I would not have been able to attend this school without the GOAL scholarship, and would not have met the many peers and teachers that have influenced me to pursue my goals.”

– GOAL scholarship recipient student

“GOAL has been a tremendous blessing to our family. By receiving the GOAL Scholarship, our son has been able to receive an excellent education.”

– GOAL scholarship recipient parent

“To attend college means everything to me because it means I will be the first in my household to go and finish college and actually become what I dream to be – a doctor.”
